TAHOE CITY, CA. — A 500-POUND BLACK BEAR WREAKING HAVOC IN TAHOE CITY, CALIFORNIA WAS SPOTTED AND BROKE INTO ANOTHER HOME, SOUTH LAKE TAHOE POLICE SAID. THE BEAR NOW HAS AN UNOFFICIAL NAME: "HANK THE TANK." NAMED APPROPRIATELY BY THE SOUTH LAKE TAHOE POLICE DEPARTMENT THIS MORNING, HANK ADDED ANOTHER CRIME TO HIS RAP SHEET. THE BEAR BROKE INTO A SECURED HOME ON CATALINA DRIVE IN THE TAHOE KEYS NEIGHBORHOOD, SOUTH LAKE TAHOE POLICE SAID. OFFICERS BANGED ON THE EXTERIOR OF THE HOME UNTIL HANK ESCAPED OUT THE BACK DOOR. OFFICERS REMAINED IN THE AREA TO ENSURE THE BEAR RAN OFF AT A SAFE DISTANCE FROM THE HOME WITHOUT DAMAGING ANY OTHER PROPERTIES NEARBY, POLICE SAID.

LOUISVILLE, KY. — MEDINA SPIRIT IS NO LONGER THE WINNER OF THE 2021 KENTUCKY DERBY. THE COLT, WHO DIED UNEXPECTEDLY IN DECEMBER, WAS OFFICIALLY DISQUALIFIED BY KENTUCKY RACING OFFICIALS ON FRIDAY FOR FAILING A DRUG TEST AFTER WINNING THE RACE. MEDINA SPIRIT IS ONLY THE THIRD HORSE IN THE RACE'S 147-YEAR HISTORY TO RECEIVE SUCH A PENALTY AFTER FINISHING FIRST. THE DECISION MEANS THE COLT'S OWNER, AMR ZEDAN, WILL NOT COLLECT THE $1.8 MILLION FIRST-PLACE CHECK. CHURCHILL DOWNS, THE TRACK IN LOUISVILLE, KY., THAT HOSTS THE DERBY, SAID IN A STATEMENT THAT IT NOW RECOGNIZES MANDALOUN AS THE WINNER OF THE 2021 RACE.
