FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

KENTUCKY HIGH SCHOOL SPEECH LEAGUE SENIOR STATE SPEECH TOURNAMENT RESULTS

After two years of virtual state tournaments and 101 years since the first statewide Oratory contest, the Kentucky High School Speech League returned to in-person state competition March 11 and 12 on the campus of Northern Kentucky University. Schools from Paintsville to Paducah competed at the annual State Senior Speech Championship after advancing from the seven Regional tournaments held around the state in February.

The Senior State Speech Tournament (grades 9-12) began Friday, March 11, with three preliminary rounds for all competitors. After receiving three scores, the top twelve scoring entries in ten speech events plus the top twenty-four participants in the four largest speech events (Broadcasting, Impromptu Speaking, Poetry, and Prose) were advanced into awards rounds. After more judging in the Quarterfinals (top 24) and Semifinals (top 12), six students in each of the fourteen events were announced as State Finalists and competed for panels of five judges Saturday afternoon. Awards were handed out in a ceremony in Northern Kentucky University's George and Ellen Rieveschl Digitorium Saturday evening.

Rowan County Senior High School won the Senior State Speech title for the third straight year with second place going to Knott County Central High School and Lexington's Paul Laurence Dunbar in third. The event was a real barn-burner as the top three schools were nearly tied the entire contest with Knott in a slight lead until the Final round, when Rowan County jumped from third to first place based on the strength of its performances in the State Finals. These three schools were followed by Murray, Lexington Henry Clay, Ryle, Beechwood, Dixie Heights, Cooper, and duPont Manual completing the top ten squads. Murray High School won the Sustained Excellence Award given to teams for outstanding performances over time; their team total for this honor will reset to zero, and they will begin earning points toward this trophy again next year. Additionally, Bardstown High, LaRue County High, Letcher County Central High, Kentucky Country Day, and Paducah Tilghman High School were honored as Schools of Distinction for outstanding performances in the state meet.

Knott County Central's Bria Stacy was voted Coach of the Year by the coach collective, and Ryle High School's Dalia Basinac received the Blyton Book Award, an annual honor given to an outstanding senior in honor of Gifford Blyton, longtime KHSSL Executive Director and debate coach at the University of Kentucky. Rowan County senior Wyatt Welte and Dixie Heights senior Abby Kane were also awarded Bale Scholarships in the ceremony, and Daviess County High School's Karen Feldhaus was inducted into the Kentucky High School Speech League Hall of Fame as part of the celebration.

A full list of award winners in each of the fourteen categories follows this release. For any questions or to connect with local coaches and schools, please contact KHSSL Executive Director Steve Meadows at 859/927-1100 or khssl@khssl.org. You can also visit our website at www.khssl.org for more information about the League.

The speech and debate season in Kentucky runs from October to January with 14 Regional Speech Tournaments held in February around the Commonwealth to qualify for State followed by State Junior Speech (grades 4-8), Senior Speech (grades 9-12), and Debate (grades 4-12) tournaments. Students competed online in twenty speech, debate, and drama categories from Storytelling to Congressional Debate to Oratory.

KHSSL offers membership to all schools -- public, private, and homeschools -- serving students in grades 4-12 in Kentucky. With member schools from Murray to Morehead, Kentucky's oldest student activity trains students how to conduct themselves in public settings, how to successfully communicate ideas, how to empathize with others via character analysis, how to read critically and how to research properly with contests that encourage excellence.
